

Prerequisite Challenge for Spanish 121, 220, 221 or 230

To challenge a prerequisite, you must provide documentation. Please note: you may only challenge if there is a space in the class or on its waitlist.

If you do not have a transcript showing completion of the prerequisite, you may write an essay answer in Spanish to the appropriate prompt below. Submit your essay and Prerequisite Challenge form to the Admissions and Records Office.

For Spanish 121-

Write one to one-and-a half hand-written pages in Spanish to describe your daily routine: what you do every day; what you did last weekend; and what you are going to do on your next vacation.

For Spanish 220 –

Write one-and-a-half to two full hand-written pages in Spanish to describe how you came to know Spanish, and/or why you are interested in taking this class.

For Spanish 221 and 230 –

Write a minimum of two hand-written pages in Spanish describing on one or more aspects of the Latin-American cultural manifestation in the United States that are interesting to you.

Once you have hand written your response, please upload your challenge online:
